

Sinclair Broadcasting uses the publicly owned airwaves free of charge and is required to use them in the public's interest. Their decision to force local stations to air an anti-Kerry program shortly before the election is partisan and anti-democratic. The FCC should stop this and evaluate whether Sinclair's actions require a reevaluation of their broadcast license.